

BREEZES MORNING MELODIES 2011 @ MECC

Friday 18 February – A Life on Earth starring Peter Cousens @ 11am

Enjoy wonderful moments from the great musicals brought to life by the man who has lived them all, Peter Cousens. Les Miserables, Aspects of Love, West Side Story, Chicago, Camelot, Guys and Dolls and The Phantom of the Opera.....to name a few! Experience the journey of a boy from Tamworth who ventured into the unknown and travelled the world. Anne-Maree McDonald's accompaniment provides the perfect balance making "A Life on Earth" a musical experience not to be missed.

Friday 15 April – The Look of Love starring Jackie Love @ 11am

With a song in her heart, Jackie Love remembers the songs that filled our days and shaped our lives through the years, and provided the musical canvas to our life of love. Sing a long and remember how love looked with songs such as We'll Meet Again, Sentimental Journey, As Time Goes By, and It's Now Or Never.

Loved by audiences Australia wide, Jackie Love is thrilled to be bringing her effervescence, warmth and beautiful voice once more to Mackay.

Friday 24 June – Barry Crocker's Banjo @ 11am

A musical play based on the life of Banjo Patterson. In this musical play many of the significant Banjo Paterson poems will be performed, along with ballads from his collection of old bush songs from the book by the same name. For those who enjoy poetry, music and the telling of a great story, join Barry Crocker for a morning of superb entertainment!

Friday 29 July – Black Tie @ 11am

BLACK TIE is a unique Australia cabaret act consisting of two brothers, Con and Yuri Mavridis, and their wives, cellist Sue and pianist Valerie. They have received Australia's highest accolade, the MO Award for Best Cabaret Group and have performed with such great performers as Max Bygraves, Patti Lupone, Vic Damone, Dionne Warwick, the late Rosemary Clooney and Victor Borge. Always a favourite with audiences, have a great musical morning with the stars of BLACK TIE.

Friday 7 October – Little Pattie in Cabaret @ 11am

Little Pattie today is as energetic as she was when she took a strong hold on the Australian music scene in the mid sixties. With a succession of hits and as a long standing member of the Bandstand family, Pattie established herself as a prominent force in the Australian music industry. Her musical talents are credited with many industry awards including Best Female Singer, Most Popular Female Performer, TV Logie for Best Teenage Personality and a succession of Gold Records.

Friday 2 December – Rocky Mountain Echoes starring Trevor Knight @ 11am

This is a celebration of the music of John Denver from someone who was personally acquainted with his life and times, but it is so much more. You are taken on a magical journey, from the Australian bush to the Rocky Mountains from "Grandma's Feather Bed" to George Formby's "When I'm Cleaning Windows" and onto comedy and romantic ballads. Audiences will love this cornucopia of songs, stories, instruments and good clean FUN!

Ticket prices:

Full / Concession	$14.00
Friends of MECC	$12.50
Subscription, buy all six Morning Melodies concerts	for $72.00